The Coolest Celebration on Earth

Vulcan Victory Torchlight Parade And Fireworks Display

Saint Paul, Minnesota (January 22nd, 2007) – The spirit of the Vulcans and their victory over Boreas rises as the night falls on Downtown Saint Paul, February 3rd at 6:00 pm.

Grand Marshall for the parade is Matt Birk of the Minnesota Vikings and Twins Mascot TC. Over 100 lighted units will march in the Torchlight Parade. The Saint Paul Winter Carnival welcomes Saturn to the Vulcan Victory Parade; the “Official Vehicle of the 2007 Saint Paul Winter Carnival. The 2007 Vulcan Victory Torchlight Parade is sponsored by the Saint Paul Winter Carnival Volunteers.

At the end of the parade the traditional overthrow of King Boreas by the Vulcan Krewe will take place in Kellogg Park.

Following the parade at 7:45 pm will be the Victory Fireworks display on the Downtown Saint Paul Riverfront. Fireworks can be viewed at Kellogg Park or Harriet Island. Fireworks are sponsored by Comcast.
